

At Thirty-Five

Robert W Service *

a glee for mixed chorus

Katherine Saxon

Briskly (♩ = 138 - 154)

Women

Men

Three score and ten, the psalm-ist saith, And half mycourse is well-nigh run;

Three score and ten, the psalm-ist saith, And half mycourse is well-nigh run; I've had my flout at 6

W

M

I've had my whack of feast and fun. I've mocked at those who prate and preach; I've laughed with an - y dust - y death, I've mocked at those who prate and preach; I've laughed with an - y

12

W

M

man a - live; But now with so - bered heart I reach The Great Di - vide of Thir - ty - five. And man a - live; But now with so - bered heart I reach The Great Di - vide of Thir - ty - five. And 17

S

A

T

B

look - ing back I must con - fess I've lit - le cause to feel e - late. I've played the mum - mer look - ing back I must con - fess I've lit - le cause to feel e - late. I've played the mum - mer look - ing back I must con - fess I've lit - le cause to feel e - late. I've played the mum - mer

look - ing back I must con - fess I've lit - le cause to feel e - late. I've played the mum - mer

* "At Thirty-Five" from Rhymes of a Rolling Stone (1912)